Greetings Brothers of St. James Lodge #4:

It is duly my pleasure to you, Brothers, for the confidence you have placed in me once again. We will, without a doubt, continue what we started in 2008. Although we were able to accomplish much of what we started, we must still continue to press onward and upward. There is much work that still needs to be done and for the 'Trailblazers' of St. James Lodge #4, there is no task too small for our Brothers to undertake.

As I stated to you last year, we have set a blazing path for others to follow, so we must now continue in that direction, working together to accomplish the common goals of the brotherhood and for the good of mankind. In our service to the Almighty, our community and our families, we must never falter. We must remain steadfast, ready and able to do what must be done to ensure our goals are accomplished.

As stated in Romans 8:31(b), "If God be for us, who can be against us?"

In 2009, we will walk right, talk right, live right and do right. I look forward to the successful and productive year that awaits St. James Lodge #4.

Your Brother,

Gregory D. Collins, I
